Reclaiming the Dream Annual Conference

Thank you to all who attended our 7th annual Reclaiming the Dream Conference. We had over 200 in attendance. Your conference evaluations told us you found value in our sectionals, the keynote Dr. Anthony Muhammad, and networking opportunities. We look forward to seeing you all again next year on March 3rd and 4th at the Holiday Inn Conference Center in Stevens Point.

Educator Awards

Congratulations to our award recipients!

Experiential Learning: Outward Bound

This summer UW-Whitewater is teaming up with Outward Bound to offer a special 3 credit graduate course, Experiential Learning: Outward Bound. Explore working with marginalized youth in an experiential learning environment. Gain first hand insight into techniques used by Outward Bound working with marginalized youth and their families. Included is an eleven day Outward Bound experience of wilderness activities, camping, canoeing, and climbing beginning in Ely, MN, on July 16 (returning on July 26). For more information contact Dr. Hartwick at hartwicj@uww.edu or 262-472-5815.

1st Annual Midwest Regional Conference on Closing the Achievement Gap

Hosted by the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay, November 3-6, 2010 in Chicago. This conference will pull together some of the best educators, superintendents, student services support staff, Title 1 teachers and leaders for a three-day conference in one of the nation's most exciting conference cities. Get ready to learn from others in the field, share experiences with cohorts and discover what cutting edge programs and practices are working. Registration information at www.uwgb.edu/outreach/achievement/

**Bonus: One of our members and board members, Marty Gholston, will be presenting the Partners for Education Youth Apprenticeship Program.

Have a wonderful summer!!!
